Webinar

Fostering HKCOS trainees' actively participation in orthopaedic research with expert insights

More than 15 trainees are invited to showcase their groundbreaking research projects in the Preliminary Presentation Round via virtual platform. Each presentation will last in 6 minutes, followed by expert feedback and discussion. Among the exceptional presentations, the top five projects will be selected to advance to the Top Presentation Round, part of the main HKCOS Scientific Meeting 2024, at Cordis Hong Kong on the following day.

All HKCOS registered fellows and trainees are welcome to join this remarkable occasion and witness the forefront of scientific innovation firsthand.
